

SUMMER SKILLS WORKSHOP 2018

UKEREWE ISLAND

In June, Standing Voice returned to Ukerewe Island with the second addition of our Summer Skills Workshop: an integrated training programme, based at the Umoja Training Centre, helping the community to develop skills and pursue income-generating opportunities and pathways of professional development. Launched in 2017, the programme is now bigger, better and more radical than ever. Over a period of two weeks, 85 participants—most from Ukerewe Island, but some from mainland Mwanza—were trained across eight workshop disciplines.
